Woodcarving School:

- Woodturning is a category this year.
- Stylized is also a new category.
- Gary McDaniel does not have a picture in the school catalog or on the website because he has not responded nor turned in a picture.
- Raffle project was voted and decided to be a cane. Willie and Gene nominated and seconded it. It was unanimous. Willie is bringing the pieces for us.

Advertising-We have the trifold brochures. Everyone please pass these out. Also School Catalogs are being e-mailed and snail mailed.

Classes:

- Leah Goddard is March 15-20. Kay will e-mail those in the class. There are still 2 slots available.
- Michele Parsons has 2 classes: April 12-14 and April 15-17. There are a total of 20 people signed up in the 2 classes.

Misc.:

- Kay announced that Ken Carter e-mailed about holidays at Winn Creek. After talking with Winn Creed and Ken, the park wants the club to come and carve either Memorial Day weekend or Labor Day weekend (one day during the weekend). If you are interested in participating, please e-mail me at webmaster@centralwoodcarving.com or call me at 334-220-4352. They will comp a campsite if you would like to stay up there.
- Jim Hart—March 18th. 8:30 am. E-mail or call to let him know if you want specific wood. Kay sent an e-mail about this.
- Willie Thornton brought walking sticks for us to take. Thank you Willie.

Show and Tell—I did not get all the names of those that did these great items. Connie did win our doorprize.
